"HyperMotion Technology" allows players to look more dynamic, fluid and natural in fast-paced, intelligent artificial intelligence (AI) driven gameplay; it also improves the player's game intelligence, and adds new features to assists and celebrations. FIFA 20 was the first game in the FIFA series to feature this unique motion-capture technology. It proved extremely popular with players, and added a new dimension to gameplay. That added dimension, along with other gameplay enhancements in FIFA 20, contributed to an increase in player ratings and assists. The FIFA Player Rating has improved since FIFA 20. Some players are on average 9.2 points better than they were in FIFA 20. In addition, some new player ratings and attributes have been added, including: Ball Skills, Ball Copying, Touchline Awareness, Interceptions, Handballs, Defending, Runners, Aggression, Ball Control, Throwing, Game Intelligence, Heading, Physicality, Tackling, Defensive Intelligence, and Passing. In addition to the overall improvement in players’ attributes and ratings, the range of meaningful and engaging gameplay experiences within FIFA games has increased. Thanks to HyperMotion technology, challenging AI-driven gameplay has been enhanced, with more accurate and realistic decisions and behaviours. AI-driven game flow has improved, with more effective tactics, and more opportunities to perform effective dribbling, passing, crossing and shooting, in addition to technical skills and co-ordination. Finally, players are now able to enjoy deeper tactics, tactics that require more than one player in the right position, and the tactical options to develop intelligent tactics to support a player’s style of play. As the technology now features an ever-increasing number of real-life players, a range of kits and scores have been added. For the first time in the history of the series, all official FIFA match kits for each country have been included. The most accurate and realistic match kit graphics have been used. A complete range of improved stadiums has been created, too, alongside new goals and the most challenging menus in the series. The world's best football content has been brought to life through the most realistic environments and game play, including pre-match, half-time and full-time experience, and the most extensive player and player build customisation options in the series. Additionally, four new ‘Dynamic DNA’ teams have been added - England, Italy, Spain and France - with a range

Football has evolved, so has FIFA. FIFA's award-winning gameplay delivers an all-new season of innovation across all game modes and a new season of gameplay innovations in FIFA 22. The PitchKit 2 motion system brings everything from the pitch to your living room in real time, and the new sprint, slide, and aerial dekes take on-field control to new heights. Teams and Player Controls The best clubs play the best teams. FIFA was designed from the ground up to provide the most realistic team behavior in football, and FIFA 22 is the first ever in-game team dynamics system. Each club features the real number of squad positions, and each team is tactically customizable to your playing style with tactics. You can put your unique style on the pitch, play exactly how you want, and take on just about any club in the world. Player Controls Your favorite 11, now more than ever, have the most responsive controls to survive and dominate like never before. New Player Shape Makes Players Smooth and Maneuverable New Player Shape, New Tools, New Battles. The new and improved player model was built from the ground up to be more responsive, athletic, and agile than ever. New tackling physics offer the most authentic-feeling collisions ever in FIFA. The new, player-driven collision engine brings added physicality to contact, and an overhauled animation system provides a much smoother and more realistic player character animation. A new, physics-based animation system allows for more responsive, natural, and powerful animations in all player movements: sprint, slide, tackle, tackle-unblock, carry, and pass. Reaction animations, as well as animations when players move into or away from specific angles, are more aggressive and realistic. The sprint system gives players more of a running start, and slides and aerial dekes make contact-based movement more fluid and natural. New collisions keep the ball controlled between players. Aerial Takedowns and Goalkeepers New aerial dekes, slide tackle animations, and a new goalkeeper-targeting system make tackling in the air more realistic. New ways to disrupt the ball with airborne aerial dekes make it easier to intercept and control the ball in the air, and new slide tackle animations make for more aggressive tackles. New goalkeeper animations include a more natural and responsive dive to the ground, better timing and reaction in coming out of dives, and a new goalkeeping one-handed bc9d6d6daa

What's new:

- How players control the game has undergone a complete overhaul, including new ways to dribble past defenders, reliably find passes, and, of course, head the ball. Each area of the pitch has its own 360 movement with the real-world movements of the player reflected in the game.
- The adaptive Dribbling control in Move feels natural as you pick passing and shooting techniques that feel right for the character you’re playing - and the reactions of your opponent. The more you use the tools in Move, the more you’ll unlock new coaching skills, changing your movement and shot into zinging scissor kicks, long-range drives, and snapping shots.
- You’ll build your skill sets by playing matches, picking the best style of play (Attack, Defense, or Midfield) and customizing your Starting XI, Captain, and Formation through Training Mode. Plus, every time you watch a match, you’ll earn Club, National, and International Experience.
