that lets you run several tasks in the same time. Suitable to all user categories The installation process does not bring any surprises and when you finalize it, you are greeted by a plain and simple interface, which contains a menu bar, several buttons and panels to display backed up items. This means that all types of users can find their way around it, regardless of their previous experience with computers.

Methods of backing up, synchronizing and scheduling This software utility enables you to back up any type of file, as well as entire directories. These can be just copied from one location to another (normal mode), or they can be compressed to a ZIP file, so that the resulted item does not occupy a lot of space. After the synchronizing process is over, you can visually compare the two folders, and view all the differences between them, including which files are only in one of the directories, which items are newer and so on. It is also possible to schedule backup and sync tasks, in a certain day or every day, for a user-input time interval. Aside from that, you can access some neatly organized Help contents and change the language. CPU and memory usage generally remains at a low level and thus, the computer's performance will not be hampered.

Conclusion All in all, WinDataReflector is a useful piece of software, for people interested in creating backups for all their important data. The response time is good, the interface is friendly and our tests did not reveal any type of errors or crashes.

Accessories Your purchase supports our projects! We are non-profit, and all the money we earn goes for buying equipment for our labs. Some of our equipment is homemade and some are cheaper alternatives to expensive lab equipment. For example, we have a Budget-Lab, where we earn more than $10,000 each year. We also have DIY Petri dishes, so we earn more than $5,000! Welcome to my friends! It means "down-loader", as you can see on wikipedia, "one who loads, unloads, or installs a computer program or a part of a program". The correct word is "install" or "loader". Hi, There is a word "Download" on the page, as well as at the end of the description. Try to remove the text "DOWNLOAD" (if not already), since it is not correct. Jens @jens - That's a great tip and I'm happy to see you picked up on it. I'm sorry about the confusion. I've taken the "Download" word out of the page and reposted the modified version here. @Justin
